 Send a note in your child's homework folder!

Welcome to the first day of second grade! Today is certainly an exciting day!
 A couple of reminders....

We bring our own snacks to school each day. Please remember to send in your child's snack. This could be a great opportunity for your child to practice some responsibility and be in charge of packing their own snacks for the week! In case someone forgets, as we all do sometimes, we have some basic snacks in the room. If you are able to send in some extra snacks that would be much appreciated! Suggestions: pretzels, goldfish, cereal, gummies, etc.

Homework folders are going home today with the only homework being to read at home and gather items for their "artifact bags" (directions included).

Monday folders are also going home tonight to start practicing the routine! Keep anything at home in the "left at home" pocket and return anything in the "right back to school" pocket.

Please make sure you sign up for class dojo, sign up for the "remind" texts to get reminders from me and fill out all of the paperwork from Meet the Teacher. I know it's a lot, thank you for your time spent on this!

Water bottles are encouraged, especially during this hot time of year!

In the Monday folder I am sending home a copy of the MIT schedule for the first half of the year. The MIT schedule will also be shared in my newsletter each week, see below!

Thanks for all you do!
